MOTORISTS VICTIMS OF LORELEI'S LURE

Chicago's "Bandit Queen" Tells How She "Vamped" Autoists For Pals to Rob.

CHICAGO, MAY 19. — Margaret Lawrence, 23, charged by police with being Chicago's "bandit queen," today confessed to luring eight motorists to lonely spots where her confederates robbed them.

It was terribly easy, she told the police.

"I'd stroll along a boulevard until I saw a real sporty-looking car with sporty-looking 'fellows' in it. Then I'd call and ask for a ride. I always sat in the front seat.

"Then I vamped him. You'd be surprised how easy it was and how many men fall for it. He'd always ask me to go with him, and I'd tell him I had to tell my girl friend first.
So he'd drive me home, but I always took him to some lonely spot where

DRY AGENTS' CASUALTY LIST MOUNTS UP IN MEXICO

The Mexican border is the most unhealthy place on the globe for "dry" law agents.

Prohibition officials said today that Federal prohibition agents have been killed along the border in the last three weeks.

Smuggling across the border is increasing at an amazing rate, said officials. They say it would require a force equal to the size of the army to stop rum runners, who are thriving in traffic in all States on the Rio Grande.

The boys would be waiting with revolvers. They'd hold him up, and even take away his car. Oh, it was too easy."

The new scout cruiser Cincinnati will be launched on May 23 at the Todd Drydock and Shipbuilding plant in Tacoma, Wash., the Navy Departsor.

WILLIS TO BE CHIEF FORESTRY SPEAKER

Ohio Senator to Give Address
At Rock Creek Park
Demonstration.

The speaker for the Forest Protection Week program and fire prevention demonstration, in Rock Creek Park will be Senator Frank B. Willis, of Ohio, the American Forestry Association announced today. The demonstration will be next Monday noon, May 23.

Forest Protection Week as proclaimed by President Harding is set for the week of May 22 to 28, and reports to the association show that the week will be observed in many parts of the country by forest guides, Boy Scouts, schools and clubs.

Smith Riley, the forester of Rock Creek Park, is aiding the association in the program. Mr. Riley is a forester of wide experience, particularly in forest fire fighting in the West.

To get to the demonstration enter Rock Creek Park by the Park road entrance and proceed to the open space along the creek just before Pierce Mill is reached.

MODESTY OF NAKED
HORSE RETRIEVED
BY AIR FLIGHT

Talk about service, listen to this:
Gen. James M. Buchanan, one of the largest exhibitors at the National Capital Horse Show, yesterday afternoon wanted a saddle especially fitted for one of his horses entered in the show. But this particular saddle was at his farm in Upperville, Va., and it was too late to send a man up there on a train to get it.

So Brig. Gen. William Mitchell, of the Air Service, offered to help out.
He ordered a plane from Bolling Field. It left for Upperville at 1:27 p. m. The pilot dropped the saddle near the paddocks.

"TELEPHONE NIGHT" AT CALVARY BAPTIST

Burrall Class Guests of Company—See Films at Church.

More than 400 members of the Burrall Class of the Calvary Baptist Sunday School were guests of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company last night at the church, Eight and H streets northwest, when for the first time in Washington the concern staged what is known as "Telephone Night."

The history of the utility from the first stammering contrivance evolved in a dusty machine shop at Salem, Mass., in 1876, by Alexander Graham Bell, down to the recent opening of the Key West-Havana submarine cable and the attendant construction of a 5,600-mile telephone conversation between Cuba and Catalina Island, California, was recounted by J. O. Martin, editor of the Transmission, the company magazine. Stereoscopic pictures accompanied the narration.

Community singing led by Percy S.
Foster varied the several numbers on the program, which included the exhibition of two moving-picture films, "Number, Please," and "Speeding the Spoken Word." The evening was concluded with refreshments served with telephone novelties.

TIMES WANT ADS RENT ROOMS IN FEW HOURS

"The Washington Times had been on the street only a short time when I rented my room," said Mrs. B. Babcock, 22 Sixteenth street northeast, today.

Mrs. Babcock was expressing her gratification over the speedy results obtained by using a classified ad in The Washington Times.

"I always advertise in The Washington Times, and it invariably brings me quick and satisfactory results," said Mrs. Babcock. "Persons who have rooms to rent could not do better than to advertise in The Washington Times. My friends have had experience in selling articles and getting positions through The Washington Times and all of them have been well pleased with the results."

Matress Sails Save "Sub."

HILLO, Hawaii, May 19.—Submarine R-14 arrived here Monday under a jury rig after exhausting her oil supplies out on search for the missing navy tug Conestoga. The R-14 had sailed from hammocks and mat-resses, supported on masts and yards made from steel bunk rods.

The COUNTRY GENTLEMAN

I wouldn't miss the next fifteen issues of this national farm weekly for many times their cost; this story alone is worth double the price of a whole year's subscription.

To the Last Man is more than a rattling good story—Zane Grey spent a lot of money and months of study to make it an accurate picture of one of the most dramatic conflicts in our history, the protracted struggle between sheepmen and cattlemen for the ranges of the West. Against this stirring background, full of breathless action and gigantic adventure, he has painted one of the tenderest and most pleasing love stories he has ever portrayed.

You won't want to miss a word of it, so you had better rush me your dollar for $2 big issues of THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN, including this great
